DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims have numerous issues of which this discussion is meant to be an example rather than an exhaustive list. The language of the claims is consistent in multiple regards rendering the claims indefinite. Claim 3 for instance discusses the overlap of the two surfaces but claim 1 does not actually mention the overlap. Throughout the claims the language referring to the regions of different depth is inconsistent. Claim 1 uses "at least two adjacent regions of different depth" and then says "the adjacent regions of different depth." Then claim 5 mentions "two or more regions adjacent to the surface," claim 6 says "the regions of different depth," and claim 9 says, "each of one or more of said regions of different depth." Given this claim language it is not possible to tell exactly how many regions are being claimed and which limitations apply to which regions. Examiner suggests amending the claim such that the language is consistent between the independent and dependent claims and such the number and references to the specific regions are clear.

Furthermore claims 12 and 15 are ambiguous as to how many outlet channels there are and the language of side-outlet channel is used in claim 12 while claim 15 uses said outlet channels.

Examiner also notes that claim 33 is also indefinite as it is not clear exactly which elements and limitations from claim 19 are present in the claim. Furthermore the claim is a hybrid in that does not clearly claim a method or an apparatus but appears to claim both a method and apparatus.

The claims have been examined as best understood by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 33 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 33 is directed to neither a process nor a machine but rather an overlap of two statutory classes of invention as set forth in 35 U.S.C. 101 which is drafted so as to set forth the statutory classes in the alternative only. Amending the claim to clearly recite the structure included rather than referencing the previous claim would likely alleviate this issue.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

4. Claims 1-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by A Novel Microstep Device for the Size Separation of Cells (submitted by applicant). See specifically sections 1.2-2.2 and section 4.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
